Get to Work! Handheld Technology Supports Employment for Individuals with Autism

Presented by Carrie Clawson, VA Dept. of Aging and Rehab Services

This recorded webinar focuses on the use of handheld technology for individuals with autism in work settings. It has application for transitioning students as well as non-students. Use of the technology addresses social/emotional (anxiety, behaviors) and work/production issues (completing tasks, timeliness, etc.). Research supporting the use of handheld technology in work settings is provided.

Running Time: 53:37 minutes; Learning Credits: 1.25

Handouts: PowerPoint Presentation Slides; iPod Checklist
